Planning commission makes changes to follow regulations

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
The Hancock County Planning Commission is reviewing an updated flood control ordinance.

Donn Murray, building official, presented the improvements for the implementation of the flood control ordinance to the commission Thursday at their regular meeting.

The improvements are based on a recent Community Assessment Visit in the county by Bill Massey of the Federal Emergency Management Agency and Jim Buckalew of the Mobile Corps of Engineers.

The visit included a discussion of the flood plain management requirements of the National Flood Insurance Program, the county's administrative procedures, a tour and inspection of recent construction in the flood-prone area of the county and field surveys of the lowest floor elevation of certain structures in the flood-prone areas.

Following the assessment, recommendations were made for dealing with construction throughout the county and information on construction requirements in areas that have fast moving water during floods that are currently being overlooked.

This information was included in a letter to the board of supervisors from Glenn C. Woodard, chief of the Natural and Technological Hazards Division of FEMA.

"One the whole, the county is doing a good job of enforcing the flood-prone area regulations," Woodard wrote.

"Murray is to be commended for his efforts in administering this program. With the limited resources available and the lack of a building code to support him, he has done more a more than adequate job with this program," he continued.

The commission also reviewed a reply to Woodard from the supervisors including a list of changes that have been made following the recommendations outlined by FEMA.

The changes include:
—Require a professional engineer or architect to certify design and methods of construction in high water velocity areas.

—Allow only breakaway walls in enclosures under lowest beam of any structure in velocity V zones. Enclosures must be less than 144 square feet in V zones.

Wastewater district notifies bidder of possible default

BY DENA BISNETTE
The Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District still does not know whether to declare a bidder on one segment of its current construction project in default.

Hemphill Construction Company was low bidder on a contract for Segment II of a project that will eventually link the Bay St. Louis and Waveland sewerage systems. The segment consist of pipeline construction in preparation for the linkage.

According to Lucien Gex, attorney for the district board, the firm was late turning in a required bid and performance bonds.

The district has required that those bonds be extended 30 days, along with the expiration period on the bid. The bid currently expires Tuesday.

In addition, Hemphill has failed to comply so far with federal requirements concerning the offering of subcontracting work to minority firms.

Gex said the district will have to negotiate with the second lowest bidder, Thweatt Construction, if Hemphill defaults on the project.

He said he had notified Hemphill of possible default before the performance bond was turned in and the board voted Wednesday to authorize him to again contact the firm.

The attorney said a special district board meeting could be called if the situation warrants further action before March 5, the next scheduled board meeting.

Chamber endorses search committee

In the matter of the selection of a new superintendent of education for the Bay-Waveland school system, the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce Education committee, supported by the board of directors, publicly endorses the process presently being carried out by the search committee set up for this purpose.

Further, the chamber commends the school board for its excellent idea of establishing the search committee and earnestly urges it to make its choice of a new superintendent only from the final applicants recommended to it by the committee if so wisely created.

Committee members, representing a wide range of business and educational experience, include school board members Betty Diboll and Danny Carter, and five citizens recommended by the mayors of Bay St. Louis and Waveland and appointed by the board. They are Linda Penrose, legal secretary; Emily deMontluzin, educator; James Ginn, banker; Clarence Harris, NSTL employee; and Herbert (Buddy) Klein, businessman and member of Gulf Regional Planning Commission.

The vacancy for the position of superintendent was advertised in state and national educational journals, and 44 applications from throughout the nation have been received and carefully studied by the search committee.

A majority of the applicants have earned doctoral degrees in school administration and have had broad experience in various aspects of education.

This group was narrowed to seven by the search committee, and an additional four names were added by the school board.

Interviews will begin on Feb. 15, and the committee will make its recommendation of the two or three candidates it considers most outstanding. The final decision will be made by the school board.

The chamber endorses no one applicant, but sees the filling of this vacancy as a unique opportunity to shape the future of this school district by selecting only the most highly qualified applicant. Our children deserve nothing less than the best.

Funding application for Gulfview classrooms gets school board OK

BY DENA BISNETTE
The Hancock County School Board has approved a formal application for financial assistance with the cost of a six-classroom addition to Gulfview School.

The district is eligible for up to $117,000, according to Superintendent of Education Terrell Randolph. The funds, if approved, will come from State Educational Finance Commission monies set aside for construction.

The board is in the process of setting up a meeting later this month with the project architect, Fred Wagner, to discuss the construction, Randolph said at Saturday's board meeting.

Feb. 17 at 6 p.m. is the tentative date and time for the meeting. In addition, the board adjusted the calendars for the three schools in the district to include make-up days needed after Hurricane Juan and Hurricane Elena.

May 28 and 29 were added for Charles B. Murphy Elementary School in Pearlinton and Gulfview Elementary School in Lakeshore.

Hancock North Central School students will make up missed days on May 28, 29 and 30.

In other business, the board:
—Approved several personnel matters, hiring a substitute teacher, a substitute janitor and a substitute cafeteria worker;

—Approved travel requests for several administrators, teachers and other staff members attending conferences and workshops;

—Approved a request to advertise for air conditioning units for Hancock North Central's junior and senior high school sections.

Autopsy report expected to show accident cause

BY DENA BISNETTE
Authorities expect to find out early this week what killed a Metairie, La., man whose car crashed on Interstate-10 Wednesday night.

According to Hancock County Coroner Harold Stiglet, Charles J. Rickoll Jr., 65, may have died from heart failure or some other cause rather than injuries from the one-vehicle accident, which occurred about 8:30 p.m. approximately five miles north of Waveland.

Rickoll apparently lost control of the vehicle, according to a report from the Mississippi Highway Patrol, which is investigating the accident.

Stiglet said an autopsy is being scheduled in New Orleans, La., and is expected to show the actual cause of death.

French sewing workshop scheduled Friday

A French sewing by machine workshop will be conducted Friday, Feb. 14, from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. The class will be at the Extension Conference Room, 725 A Dunbar Avenue, Bay St. Louis and will be taught by Darlene Underwood, Hancock County Extension Home Economist.

Participants are required to purchase a kit of supplies at cost and bring a zig zag sewing machine and sewing notions to the class. A sampler will be completed during the workshop. To pre-register and for further details, call the Hancock County Extension Office, 467-5458.

French handsewing refers to the elegant handsewing techniques of the late 1800's and early 1900's. In recent years, there has been a revival of interest in using these fine techniques in making garments.

"To complete a garment using French handsewing takes many hours of love and labor, but you can achieve a very similar effect by using a zig zag sewing machine," Underwood said.

'Speaking Oracles of God'

—I Peter 4:11

By W. Edwin Kearley, Minister
501 Pine St.
Bay St. Louis

THE UNMERCIFUL SERVANT (NO. 2)

Let us now notice the merciful king. "The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt." (vs. 26-27)

The king's heart was touched with the misfortune of the debtor. Being "moved with compassion," he bestowed two favors: He "released him."

God releases us from cruel bondage of sin when we make the proper approach. In the parable of the lost son, when he found himself penniless in the hog pen, he realized his sin and resolved to go to his father's house and ask to be a servant and not a son.

"He arose, and came to his father, but when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat and be merry; for thus my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry." (Luke 15:20-24)

The lesson is the Father of Heaven will run to forgive the penitent - obedient individual. Paul tells of God's forgiveness under the Christian age.

He stated, "But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness." (Romans 6:17-18)

He "forgave him the debt." Every sinner, regardless of the weight of guilt, is forgiven when he believes and obeys. Those guilty believing ones on Pentecost were told, "...repent and be baptized every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." (Acts 2:38)

This is still the answer which must be given to the penitent believer.

When God forgives, he forgives completely and forever. The Hebrew writer quotes Jeremiah's prophecy and applies it to the Christian age, "For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more." (Hebrews 8:12)

We are all sinners and need the mercy of our God.

Tornado drill set for Thursday

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Hancock County will participate in a statewide tornado drill scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 13 as part of a program to promote tornado awareness in Mississippi.

Governor Bill Allain, in cooperation with the Mississippi Emergency Management Agency and the National Weather Service, declared Feb. 10-14 as Tornado Awareness Week.

"The purpose of the drill is to give residents, businesses, hospitals and schools the opportunity to see if they can receive the warning and take necessary actions to save lives," said Bobby Boudin, Hancock County Civil Defense director.

Although no tornado-related deaths occurred in 1985, Mississippi still leads the nation in tornado-related deaths with 1,145 people killed since 1918.

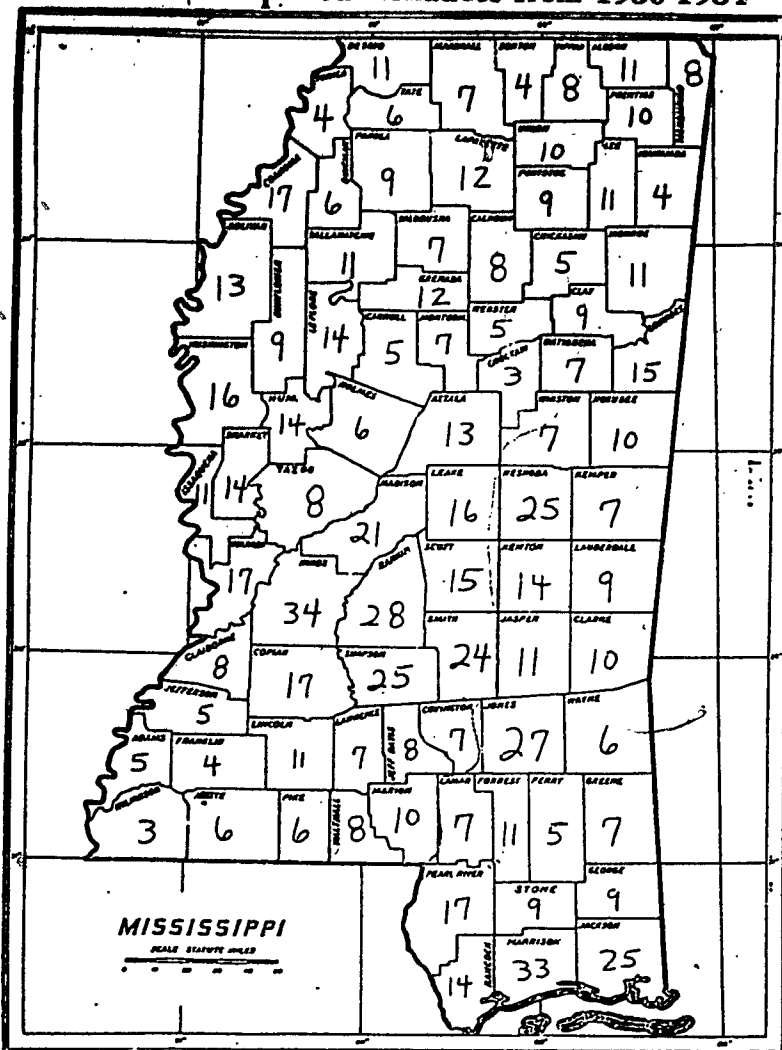

Statistics reveal that although Mississippi leads in the number of tornado-related deaths, tornadoes are much more numerous in Texas, Oklahoma and other midwestern states.

Officials believe one reason for the high number of deaths is because tornadoes that occur in Mississippi are frequently more powerful than midwestern tornadoes.

Another reason listed is that tornadoes are much harder to spot in Mississippi because they occur so often at night and because many times they are obscured by low clouds, heavy rain and tall trees.

A practice tornado watch will be issued on the morning of the drill as an alert that a tornado warning is possible during the next several hours. A practice tornado warning will be issued later that morning.

Number of reported tornadoes from 1950-1984

New Pearlinton post office site sought

The U. S. Postal Service is seeking a suitable site upon which to build and lease a new main post office building in Pearlinton. Postmaster Elizabeth C. Lynch said.

The "preferred area" for site consideration includes north along both sides of Highway 604 to one-quarter of the present facility; south along both sides of Highway 604 to First Street; east along both sides of Highway 604 between First Street and a point one-quarter mile north of the present facility; and west along both sides of Highway 604 between First Street and a point one-quarter mile north of the present facility.

Where streets or highways are used as boundaries, sites on either side of the street or highway are considered within the preferred area.

All utilities and access to a two-lane paved public street must be available.

Minimum site size needed is 45,000 square feet of land or a lot with the dimensions of 225 feet by 200 feet.

Property owners are asked to submit their site offerings no later than Feb. 27 to: Howard Snyder, senior real estate specialist, Field Real Estate and Building Office, U. S. Postal Service, P. O. Drawer 3744, Memphis, Tenn. 38173-0744.

After a suitable site has been located, the Postal Service will call for construction bids for a building that will be built with private funds and leased to the Postal Service for a long term period.

The proposed post office building will have approximately 3,676 square feet of interior floor space.

The men of Triton have been working hard to make this year's parade one of their best yet. It is hard to realize this will be their 12th parade.

Also on Tuesday morning the Krewe of Real People will parade within the City of Bay St. Louis starting at 11:30 a.m.

The Krewe of Real People's parade has been improving each year, and we are told the parade Tuesday will be one of the best.

We wish everyone a very happy Mardi Gras.

The recent warm weather makes it hard to realize that we are still in the winter season.

Today for lunch I ate my first tomato of the season grown in my flower garden on the southern end of my house.

At the beginning of winter I transplanted three volunteer plants from my compost pile in the flower bed, which I placed a cold frame over.

It looks like I will be harvesting a few more in the months to come.

From the Office of the Governor

TRANSPORTATION COORDINATION IMPORTANT TO DEVELOPMENT

We in Mississippi are experiencing a massive mood of change sweeping across the state. Everywhere I go I hear from people who are searching for different methods of making our state grow economically to expand our tax base and to create new jobs.

In my discussions with business prospects, economic developers, and other governors, I repeatedly hear of the importance of a unified, coordinated, and accountable transportation system to the overall growth of any state, any city, or any town. Because of the importance of all forms of transportation to our state, I have proposed the creation of a state Department of Transportation and that proposal is pending before the Legislature at this time.

Presently, I don't have to tell you that Mississippi needs better highways and roadways, better air transportation, safer rail lines and more port and waterway coordination. You know that.

What you may not know, though, is why our needs are so great. We presently have no state agency in control of our entire transportation system. It is overseen by 37 state boards, seven different departments of state government, and seven Legislative committees. I am the fifth governor to call for a change in our transportation system.

In addition, we are the only state in the country that still elects highway commissioners. Are we doing it right and everybody else is wrong? If so, why are our highways so bad?

No, I believe we need a coordinated transportation department. Thirty-six other states have one single agency responsible for all modes of transportation. And that's what I am proposing for Mississippi.

The department would be run by a five-member commission, appointed by the governor, and a professional director. Mississippi has a good record for the major period when we did not have a highway commission.

From 1936 to 1939 we had no highway commission, yet Gov. Hugh White told the highway director to get Mississippi out of the mud by building highways. During that period, our state saw the paving of Highways 51, 78, 72, 82, 49 East and West, 80, 90, 11, 51, 45, and others. That's a record that cannot be argued with.

All those highways were the result of a coordinated highway plan, and that's what I am proposing for the Department of Transportation—a coordinated overall transportation effort. The Department would include highways, railroads, airways, ports and waterways, and transit lines.

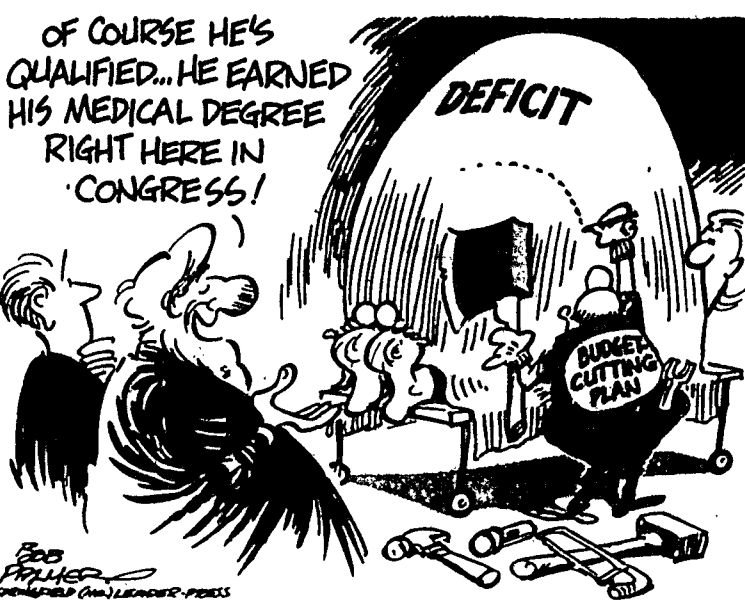

In the area of highways, better coordination would mean an end to the operation of the highway planning as three separate agencies, one for each region of the state. Instead, it would equalize conditions of the roads statewide.

In railroads, it would assist railroads and shippers in rebuilding and repairing substandard lines. It would mean safety inspections of rail lines.

In ports and waterways, it would mean coordination between our major waterways—the Mississippi River, Gulf of Mexico and Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway—as well as planned port development statewide.

In aviation, cities and towns would be assisted in airport development and safety.

In public transit, urban areas could get coordination of buses, taxis and other transportation and rural areas could coordinate elderly and handicapped transportation and regional systems.

Housekeeping

Weekly Summary
from
Mississippi House of Representatives

By Andrew Reese
House Information Officer

JACKSON—The Highway Department would transfer $10 million from special fund accounts to the State Treasury under a bill approved by the Mississippi House of Representatives as part of efforts to cope with the state's budget problems in the coming year.

The bill cleared the House last week by a heavy margin, 106-12. Backers cautioned that a larger cut in highway funds, as proposed by Gov. Bill Allain, could seriously endanger road construction and maintenance programs.

The legislation also was approved by the State Senate, but faced an uncertain future as the present week began because of a possibility the governor might veto the bill.

Money problems have plagued legislators since the 1986 session began, causing a major reduction in budget recommendations for most state agencies and departments in the fiscal year starting July 1. Under the bill, the $10 million in highway money would be deposited in the Treasurer to the credit of the Bureau of Building, Grounds and Real Property Management and spent only as authorized by legislative act.

Supporters indicated Highway Department officials agreed voluntarily to the proposed $10 million transfer in light of the tight money situation. The cut would primarily involve administrative expenses such as salaries, travel, contractual services and delaying equipment purchases.

The bill prompted a lengthy discussion in the Appropriations Committee and the full House, revolving around a Highway Department policy that funds to pay for a project be available before a contract is signed. The Department operates largely on federal highway dollars, gasoline taxes, and a diversion of sales tax collections on motor fuel.

Committee work got high priority in the fourth week of the session as lawmakers prepared for this week's deadline (Feb. 6) for House and Senate committees to act on general bills originating in their own chambers. Public hearings were held on a variety of bills, ranging from limiting non-economic damage awards in lawsuits to resolving disputes between land surface owners and mineral owners.

The House of Representatives narrowly defeated a bill that would have done away with Mississippi's motor vehicle inspection law. Some lawmakers argued the 25-year-old law is not truly effective and costs more to administer than inspection fees produce, but others argued it has helped reduce accidents and saved lives.

Another measure that failed to win House approval last week would have required drivers and front-seat passengers to wear safety belts in motor vehicles. While most lawmakers agreed people should be encouraged to wear seat belts, many believed the decision ought to be left to the individual and not mandated by state law.

The House approved a bill to require that parents be notified before an abortion is performed on unmarried girls under age 18. The House also passed measures to continue the life of the Statewide Health Coordinating Council; require that the odometer (mileage) reading be contained in applications for a motor vehicle title; and provide that new highways comply with edge-line marking requirements before opened for public use.

A feeling of sadness prevailed in the House following the Space Shuttle Challenger tragedy. Two Mississippians who represented the state in the Teacher in Space program made a brief visit to the House shortly after the catastrophe. But what should have been a happy visit was marked instead by tears. Later, House members unanimously approved a resolution expressing their deepest sympathy to the families of the Challenger crew.

IN CONGRESS

By Cong. Trent Lott

Congressman Trent Lott for the fifth consecutive year is sponsoring an art competition for all fifth district high school students.

The contest is part of An Artistic Discovery, an annual competition implemented by Members of the U.S. House of Representatives to recognize the creative talents of young Americans.

The winner of the Fifth Congressional District's competition, cosponsored by the South Mississippi Art Association, will receive a $100 cash prize and will enjoy the honor of having the art work displayed for one year in a designated corridor of the U.S. Capitol, Lott said.

South Mississippi entries must be submitted by April 15 to the Congressman's Hattiesburg district office: Room 215, Federal Building, 701 Main Street, Hattiesburg, Mississippi 39401. The art work must be two-dimensional, no larger than 30 by 30 inches (unframed) and within the following categories: paintings, drawings, collages or prints. Only one entry per student is permitted.

In addition to the recognition for the overall winner, ribbons and certificates will be awarded to the competition's outstanding entries by the South Mississippi Art Association which will be responsible for the judging.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Congressman's office in Hattiesburg at 582-3246.

Motel president decries rowdiness

The Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir:
I must comment on the activities that took place at the Waveland Resort Inn after the Nereids' Parade on Sunday, Feb. 2.

It is one thing to see some young teenager jump into the pool for the fun of it. It is, however, something totally different when there are some 40 or 50 young juveniles, many of whom were obviously under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs, start pushing each other into a deep concrete pool.

I truly believe that had it not been for the assistance of Poochie Tartavouille of the Waveland Police Department, someone would have been seriously injured in this melee. This year we got by with only one major injury. Next year it may be a shattered spine, or a split skull.

What was equally disturbing was the throng of adults standing around on both levels cheering the juveniles on, booing the police, and creating a near-riot situation.

I would be very pleased if those who enjoy and encourage this type of activity would choose another location next year.

Sincerely,

Minister attacks wine sales proposal

Dear Editor,
State Representative Walter Phillips has been around long enough to know that there is no 'Free Lunch.'

Yet, in an article in the Jan. 30, 1986 edition of The Sea Coast Echo, Rep. Phillips is quoted as making this statement: "This bill is that proverbial 'Free Lunch' everybody always says doesn't exist."

The bill to which Rep. Phillips referred is the bill that he has introduced which would permit wine to be sold in grocery stores and all other retail outlets, convenient stores, etc., where beer is currently sold.

Rep. Phillips believes this action 'will help the state out of a difficult financial situation.'

Don't forget, now, that this is the same representative who was one of the leaders in the self-voted pay raise which our Mississippi legislators gave themselves last year.

That infamous self-interest bill, which feathered the nest of the legislators, was passed in the midst of an educational crisis in our state.

Needless to say, the next round of public relations statements coming from Rep. Phillips and the Capitol undoubtedly will attempt to tie this wine bill's passage to education!

Isn't it strange how nearly all these public draining and damaging matters such as lotteries, pari-mutuel gambling, and alcohol seem to get linked to public education, hospitals, and believe it or not, law enforcement?

Rep. Phillips' bill will only make another alcoholic beverage more and more accessible to the youth of our community. Alcohol is the most abused drug in our county, state, and country.

This bill will cost us in lives, mangled bodies, and self-respect.

Our legislators should be introducing bills which will address the problems of drugs, drunk driving, etc. rather than introducing bills which will make the already deplorable situation worse.

An average of 50 percent of all traffic fatalities nationwide are a direct result of alcohol use; however for our Coast counties the percentage is about 90.

Don't be deceived by the hype coming from the Capitol which wants the public to believe that wine is not as bad as beer or whiskey.

Ethyl alcohol is the intoxicating substance in beer, whiskey and wine. One 12-ounce can of beer or four-ounce glass of wine contains about the same amount of alcohol as one-ounce of 100 proof liquor.

At a blood alcohol concentration of .10 percent, the probability of having an accident while driving is 7 1/2 times greater than at the no-alcohol level. At .15 percent, the probability is 25 times greater and quickly rises to 50 times greater above .15 percent.

Perhaps, just perhaps, with enough parents and responsible community leaders voicing their objection to this costly bill, Rep. Phillips will reconsider this 'Free Lunch' before it's able to eat some of our children.

Oleander's attractiveness outweighs its dangers

Dear Editor:

Perhaps you have already heard about the "bloomer" I uttered over at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club the other day. If not, here is what I said: "Oleanders grace sections of the US-90 media and when in bloom are very attractive and colorful. It is true that the leaves if eaten by man or beast are poisonous. We are not to worry over much. We have an enforced stock law. Children are carefully supervised when crossing this dangerous highway."

Two ladies told me of their personal and unfortunate experiences with oleander. One lady held a bouquet of the oleander blossoms to her face and inhaled to see if she could detect a fragrance. She became violently ill.

The lady told of a youngster who cut a small twig from the shrub to use in toasting a marshmallow. Juice oozing from the oleander entered the marshmallow which he ate. He became dangerously ill!

Oddly, on that very same day I read in Marjorie Wilson's column of the Herald: "And the leaves of this useful, popular plant, oleander, are a no-no."

Marjorie didn't elaborate on the "use" of the plant, but she did mention that Anya Seton, in one of her "who done it's" cleverly had the villain use the juice from the somewhat unusual for one institution to rise to the aid of a competing institution in distress, Phillips College views this as a community issue which transcends competition and deserves broad-based support.

Our students who graduate from Phillips College, as well as all students on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, need to be able to pursue a four-year degree after junior college graduation. We desire to see all present institutions, both public and private, continue to make this educational option available.

oleander in a cake mix. So I looked up the oleander in my Gardening Bible, "The New Gardening Encyclopedia" which was written by a group of horticultural experts and printed by Wm. H. Wise and Co.

I quote: "Despite the fact that the stems, leaves and flowers are poisonous to man and beast if eaten and are beloved by scale insects and mealy bugs, they have long been popular subjects."

"The Bible" also advises burning all prunings.

Personally, I like oleanders and would like to defend them. I can recall from early childhood how I enjoyed the Sunday rides our family made to visit the coast—especially when oleanders were in bloom. Neither the oleanders nor the children who played in my gardens ever had poison symptoms—or mealy bugs for that matter.

However, this is American History month, and if we are to believe all that Parson Weems had to say about George Washington's inability to tell a lie—well, while I will concede that the oleander is poisonous if eaten, I vote in favor of keeping this attractive shrub in our lovely Southern gardens.

Legislative Report

From Mississippi Reporting Service

By Rosa Lee H. Jones

After charging through major issues like gubernatorial succession, blue laws, teacher pay and kindergarten in its first three weeks, the Mississippi Legislature settled down to a business as usual during the final week of January.

The House Thursday approved a Senate-passed bill that would cut $10 million from the Highway Department's 1987 budget.

Gov. Bill Allain had lobbied for a $23 million cut and has threatened to veto the bill. The Highway Department depends on special tax diversions and is immune from ordinary state budget cuts.

Statewide banking moved a step closer to reality when the Senate OK'd a bill allowing bank mergers outside the present 100-mile limit. The bankers' association is solidly behind expansion this year for the first time.

The principal opponents of expansion, executives of the Hancock Bank in Gulfport and People's Bank in Tupelo, unsuccessfully proposed a substitute bill that would allow banks to grow by opening new branches but keep the ban on mergers. People's Bank officials say they will continue the fight in the House.

The Senate voted Wednesday to trim its own size and that of the House, a measure supporters say would save $600 to $1 million per year.

The Senate-passed measure would reduce the House from 122 to 84 members and the Senate from 52 to 42. Alabama, Arkansas, Tennessee and Louisiana all have fewer legislators than does Mississippi.

Mandatory seat belt legislation died in the House by a 78-43 vote. Testimony in committee hearings indicated that seat belts could have prevented 187 of the state's 684 highway fatalities in 1985.

If three-fourths of the nation's states (or two-thirds of the population) are not covered by mandatory seat belts laws before 1989, a federal law mandates new cars will have to be equipped with expensive air bags.

Parents of teenagers will have to be notified before their daughters have an abortion, the House said Thursday by an 89-30 vote. An exception would be allowed when a judge rules the girl has valid reasons not to notify her parents or guardian.

Parents need to help their children deal with the emotional and psychological crises that can follow an abortion, said Rep. Ralph Doxey, chairman of the Judiciary B committee which sent the bill to the House floor.

The likelihood of the legislature closing any university this session grew dim as House Appropriations Committee vice chairman Charlie Capps, of Cleveland said "the votes are not there."

Campus presidents told legislators that the drastic education budget cuts already enacted mean that faculty layoffs may be in the offing. The College Board, citing the money shortage, two weeks ago asked the legislature to close the Mississippi University for Women, Mississippi Valley State, the Mississippi State University College of Veterinary Medicine and the University of Mississippi School of Dentistry.

Hectic committee sessions will characterize this week as legislators rush to meet deadlines. The time has passed to introduce non-revenue bills and they must be reported out of committee by Feb. 6.

The next few weeks should bring a barrage of heavy floor action in both houses.

Tax assistance available at libraries

Public libraries in Hancock County have resources available to assist the public in filling out federal income tax forms, according to Prima Wusnack, library system director.

The material is prepared and provided by the IRS in cooperation with the nation's libraries. Useful aids include audio cassettes containing simple line-by-line instructions for filling out federal forms 1040EZ; 1040A and Schedule 1; and Form 1040 and Schedules A, B, and W.

Many IRS publications are available for reference. One that can help taxpayers prepare their individual tax returns is Publication 17, "Your Federal Income Tax." Federal tax laws which apply to business persons and farmers are explained in Publication 334, "Tax Guide for Small Business," and Publication 225, "Farmers Tax Guide."

Publication 1194, specially designed for libraries, is a set of the IRS's most requested publications and a helpful reference guide.

Reproducible tax forms are contained in Publication 1132. This allows a taxpayer to easily photocopy for a small fee each of more than 90 of the most commonly used federal income tax forms.

Publication 910, also available at the library, is the handy "Taxpayer's Guide to IRS information, Assistance and Publications." This publication describes the services available to aid in tax return preparation and offers information on where to get additional help.

Taxpayers wishing to receive recorded tax tips by telephone can pick up a brochure on Tele-Tax, Publication 1163. The brochure lists various tax topics which can be accessed by using either a push button or rotary-dial phone.

Library employees will be happy to direct taxpayers to the many helpful tax aids available.

St. Stanislaus football awards presented

The 1985-1986 St. Stanislaus football awards banquet was staged recently at the SSC cafeteria.

Head Coach Vernon Powell presented trophies to players for 'outstanding play and team leadership' this past season.

They include George Stills, outstanding defensive back; Philip Wittmann, outstanding defensive lineman; Todd Thriffliey, outstanding offensive back; and Mike Yarborough, outstanding offensive lineman.

Powell stated that 1985 was the second consecutive year that the varsity Rockchaws had a winning season. The last time St. Stanislaus had back-to-back winning seasons was 1969-69.

"We have built a foundation which will be an example for all of our younger players," Coach Powell stated. "Our play this year was characterized by outstanding effort on the part of several individuals."

St. Stanislaus finished the season 5-4. After the first game against Pearl River, La., was cancelled due to Hurricane Elena, the Rocks posted back-to-back victories over St. John in overtime and Mercy Cross. Other highlights of the season included wins over Pass High, East Central and Riverdale.

Rocks defeat Mercy cross 61-53

Led by the double-digit scoring of Tom Walton, Louis Schuff and Yasin Shabazz, the St. Stanislaus varsity basketball team defeated Mercy Cross Crusaders by a score of 61-53 in a game played Tuesday at the SSC gymnasium.

In the preliminary Junior Varsity game, SSC prevailed 48-42. Shane Harris led all scorers with 18 points while Robert Brown and John Gross had 10 points apiece.

Mercy Cross held a slim 29-26 halftime advantage in the varsity contest led by Jo Jo Koonce who wound up the evening with 24 points. Guard Tony Mitchell added 12 points for the Crusaders.

The Rockchaws bounced back in the third quarter, outscoring Mercy Cross 19 to 7 to take a 45-38 lead. SSC guard Josh Bowles dished out six assists to lead the team.

From the free-throw line, St. Stanislaus hit 7 for 20, while Mercy Cross was 13 for 25.

In the District tournament Monday, St. Stanislaus will face d'Iberville. Tip-off is at 6:30 p.m.

THRILL IS BACK

B. B. King says that the "blues are like a tonic. They're good for what ails you."

King took his musical medicine to the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman in 1984 for a concert and proved that the thrill is not gone. Mississippi ETV taped "B. B. at Parchman Prison" for airing in December 1984. It will be rebroadcast at 9 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 13, on Mississippi ETV.

King performs such hits as "Let the Good Times Roll," "Got My Mojo Working," "Inflation Blues" and his trademark, "The Thrill Is Gone."

In the program, King explains that the blues are not only sad, but the blues are a way of feeling good by expressing happiness or just venting the bad feelings and blowing off steam.

ALCOHOLICS DON'T SUFFER BY THEMSELVES...

THE WHOLE FAMILY SUFFERS.

It's not an unusual story. Take a successful individual who has everything going for him. Great family, promising career and life's daily problems he tries to solve with alcohol — and sometimes drugs. Eventually, his problems will grow to include chemical dependency. Can his family handle that?

What about the successful business woman? She's attractive, personable — and an alcoholic. Her favorite hobby — drinking martinis at lunch and after work. How long can she stay on top? Her home life as a wife and mother has already turned into a nightmare for her family.

ALCOHOLICS DON'T SUFFER ALONE.

At GULF OAKS HOSPITAL & CLINIC, chemical dependence is viewed as a family illness and recovery for the entire family is considered essential. If a family member or close friend is destroying their life by alcohol or drug indulgence, they need help. Professional medical help. At GULF OAKS, family involvement is an integral part of our program. Team members work with the family to help them understand the patient's problem as an illness.

President signs Job Training Program extension

According to VA Regional Office Director Samuel J. Maramba of Jackson, President Reagan has signed legislation extending for one year Federal veterans job training program for certain unemployed Vietnam Era and Korean Conflict veterans.

The law also authorizes an additional $65 million for the program in fiscal year 1986.

However, additional legislation would be required for such funding to actually be appropriated and made available to the VA.

Under the new law, veterans may apply to participate effective Feb. 1. The application period would end Jan. 30, 1987. The measure also extends until July 31, 1987, the deadline for eligible veterans to be enrolled in approved training.

To participate in the program, a veteran must have been unemployed for at least 10 of the last 15 weeks immediately preceding the date of his or her application.

Eligible veterans are furnished a certificate of eligibility by the Veterans Administration to be presented to an employer offering a job training program that meets specified requirements.

For additional information, contact the local Job Service Office or call Jackson VA Regional Office.

The statewide toll free number is 1-800-682-6270.

The two programs, titled "The Second American Revolution," tell the story of the search by Black Americans for their basic rights as Americans. While attending The Basic School, located at the Marine Corps Development and Education Command Quantico, Va., O'Neil was prepared, as a newly-commissioned officer, for assignment to the Fleet Marine Force and given the responsibility of a rifle platoon commander.

The 26-week course includes instruction on land navigation, marksmanship, tactics, military law, personnel administration, Marine Corps history and traditions, communications and the techniques of military instruction.

O'Neil was also taught leadership by example and the importance of teamwork. He was also required to participate in a demanding physical conditioning program.

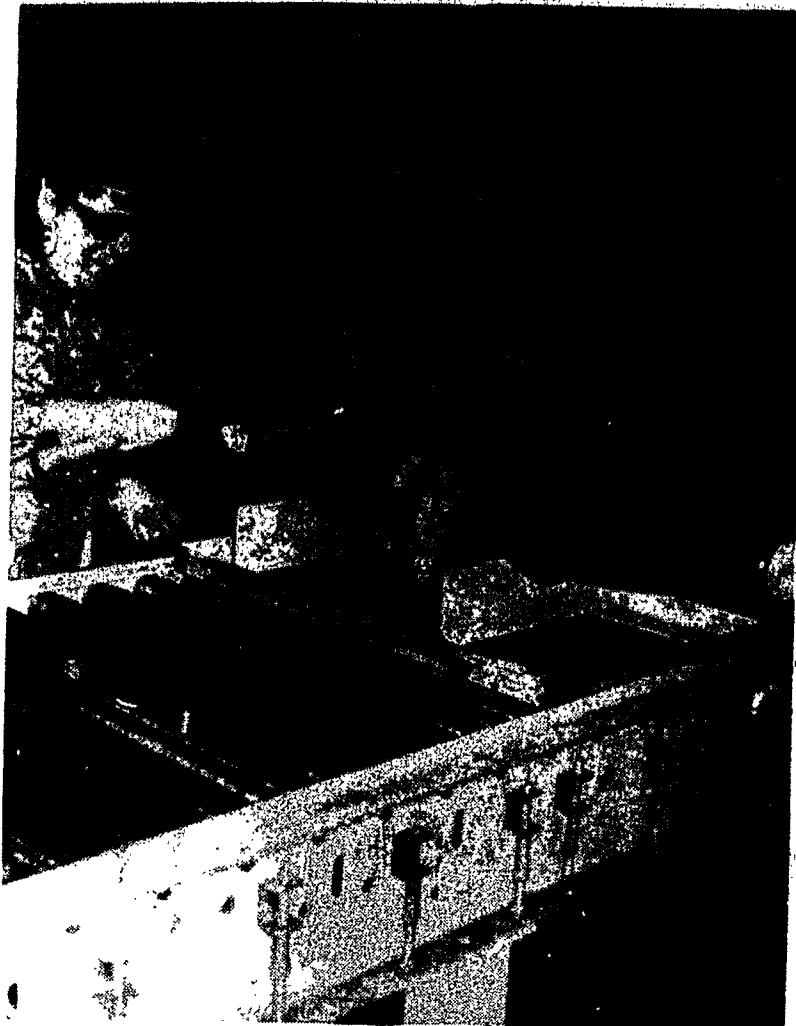

A 1981 graduate of Picayune Memorial High School, Picayune, MS, and a 1985 graduate of United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, MD, with a Bachelor of Science degree, he joined the Marine Corps in July 1981.

PRODUCTION MILESTONE—Linda Fayard, left, and Ella Peterson check the 20,000th projectile to move through the U.S. Army Ammunition Plant assembly line at NSTL in January.

Ammo plant achieves production milestone

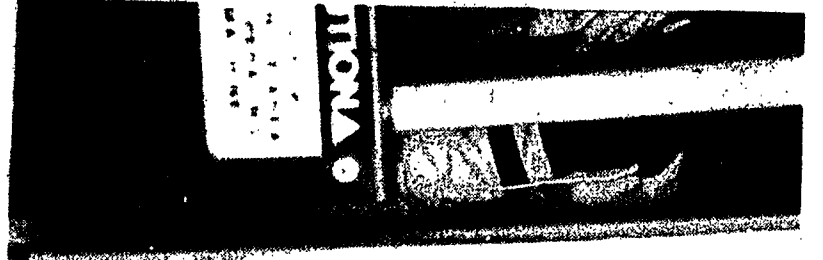

The Mississippi Army Ammunition Plant at NSTL achieved a production milestone in January, turning out 20,000 projectile sub-assemblies.

The plant produces 155mm improved conventional munitions for the U.S. Army and some of the NATO allies.

At the present time, the plant has a workforce of approximately 1,430 employees. This workforce is largely comprised of residents from Pearl River, Hancock and Harrison counties as well as residents from St. Tammany Parish, La.

Participants in a celebration on Friday included Richard Travis and Dr. Mercer Miller, administrative assistants to Congressman Trent Lott.

LEONARD PORTER crates the ribbon-bedecked projectile which marked a production milestone at the U.S. Army Ammunition Plant in January.

Hilda McGee and Greg Hinsey inspect the 20,000th unit to move through the U.S. Army Ammunition Plant in January, marking a production record.

State income tax forms, information available through service line

Individuals who are new in Mississippi, persons who recently have moved to a new location in the state or others may obtain state income tax forms or state tax information from the Governor's Service Line.

These services, provided in cooperation with the State Tax Commission, may be obtained by contacting the Service Line on the toll-free number, 1-800-222-7622.

Service Line counselors will provide answers to basic tax questions and, if desired, refer callers to volunteer tax preparation services.

Every year, the Governor's Service Line serves more than 700 Mississippians in the tax assistance program, according to Checky Herrington, director of program information, Governor's Office of Federal-State Programs.

"If the Service Line counselor is not able to immediately answer a question," Herrington said, "this person will consult with the Tax Commission and call the individual back."

"Tax forms for 1985 are basically the same as for 1984 with the exception that persons due a refund may designate that all or some of the refund be contributed to the Wildlife Heritage Program to aid in wildlife conservation," he said.

"In addition to tax assistance," Herrington said, "the Service Line provides information in areas such as education, legislation, employment, training, social services, economic development, licensing, tourism, finance, health, insurance, prison-related matters and energy assistance. Help is as near as the telephone."

Ladner-Jeanfreau

St. John Catholic Church in Lakeshore was the setting for the January 18 marriage of Sunni Ann Jeanfreau of Bay St. Louis and Douglas Vernon Ladner of Waveland. The Rev. Lambert Stack officiated at the afternoon double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace V. Jeanfreau of Bay St. Louis. The groom's parents are Vernon Ladner of Waveland and Mrs. Verdi Lee Orrells of Gulfport.

Decorating the sanctuary were basket arrangements of white silk gladioli, chrysanthemums, lavender dogwood and violet peonies and fern greenery.

Readings from scripture was delivered by Margie Amason of Bay St. Louis, sister of the bride.

Nuptial music was presented by organist Jean Smith and soloist Sandy Rhodes.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white filigree lace over taffeta with high venise lace collar and victorial ruffled yoke. The fitted bodice was sashed at the waist with satin ribbon. The hemline of the full skirt featured a deep lace flounce ruffle and tiers of ruffles extended from the back waist to the chapel train. Her bridal hat with slightly rolled brim was adorned with pearly venise lace and decorated with silk flower motif and had a pouf of illusion at the back with streamers.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses accented with tiny lavender rosebuds, baby's breath and plumosa fern interspersed with lace and satin ribbons.

Shelli J. Howard of San Diego, Calif., attended her sister as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Micki Perniciaro of Waveland and Melanie L. Karetas of Gulfport, sisters of the bride; Amy Mitchell of Kiln; Dawn Fricke of Bay St. Louis, niece of the bride; and Christi Sharp of Utah, niece of the groom.

The attendants were attired in violet satin gowns, each with cross-draped bodice outlined in tiny ruffles, tulip sleeves and softly pleated skirt with self-sash at the fitted waistline. The matron of honor wore a gown of the same style in amethyst.

They wore hats of complement their dresses in a style similar to the bride's, each with self rose at the side and illusion poufs with short streamers at the back.

They carried small cascade bouquets of violet mini-carnations, baby's breath and ribbon.

Douglas Seal of Picayune was best man.

Groomsmen were David Ervin, brother-in-law of the groom, Jimmy Necaise and Dwayne Necaise, all of Waveland; Shane Heitzmann of Bay St. Louis and Bob Fitzsimmons of Fenton.

Billy Rhodes of Bay St. Louis, brother-in-law of the groom, was usher.

Mrs. Jeanfreau chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath-style formal gown in mauve featuring a crystal pleated capelet-style overlay with V-neckline and matching accessories.

Mrs. Ladner was attired in a two-piece ensemble with floor-length burgundy skirt, and sheer tunic style top in printed chiffon with three-quarter-length sleeves and self belt.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Bay St. Louis. Assisting was Mary Alice Ladner, aunt of the bride.

On return from a wedding trip to Tennessee, the couple will reside in Bay St. Louis.

Senior Citizen Happenings

By Eve McDonald

MANY THANKS

To all of you and our "super supervisors" for keeping me working for you. It was very heartwarming to find I had so many friends and supporters in this county who really thought I was doing a good job, and was needed to continue providing leadership at this center.

FIGHT NOT OVER

It appears the Mississippi Council on Aging (MCOA) wants to cut the service you are now receiving. They have decided that what you need is a social worker more than you need meals, transportation, or a center. According to the priorities they have set, you will really be in trouble if you have the above needs.

Many of you seniors participated in a survey the MCOA conducted to find the perceived needs of the elderly in our state. This was done months ago, but it looks like the results are being kept secret. Maybe the results don't tally with what the bureaucrats want.

You can be sure the state bureaucrats will not ask those of us who have been working with you for 14 years what we have proven you need.

Why not let each county decide for themselves what their seniors need? I guess that would eliminate too many bureaucrats and their big salaries.

Another thing you may want to ask the governor when cuts are made in programs: 'Are any of these cuts made in the bureaucracy, or do the seniors have to accept all of the cuts at the delivery of service level?'

The Governor's Hot Line is 1-800-222-7622. You may want to get some answers from him, or let him know that you are interested in what priorities his council has set for you and your friends.

Gulf National Bank Financial Straight Talk IRA's

Individual Retirement Accounts (IRA's)

Q: What is an IRA?

A: An Individual Retirement Account, (commonly called an IRA) is a tax favored retirement fund established by an individual or employer. When an IRA is established, money paid into the plan is tax deductible and the earnings on the money paid is tax-exempt until it is distributed.

Q: Who can have an IRA?

A: Anyone with earned income is eligible to open an IRA. Even if you are covered by a retirement plan at work, you are still eligible to open an IRA.

Q: Do I have a choice in my investment options when I establish an IRA?

A: At Gulf National Bank, our innovative Gulf Choice IRA program offers these options:

Gulf IRA. This account provides for investments in Gulf National Bank deposit accounts. You can select from a variable rate IRA or a certificate of deposit with a maturity from 12 to 60 months.

Gulf Banker's Choice IRA. This account provides for investments in several selected mutual funds as well as GNB deposit accounts.

Gulf Choice Self-Directed IRA. This IRA provides total flexibility in your investment within the limitations of the IRS code. Investment choices may be in many forms (e.g. stocks, bonds, mutual funds, etc.).

For further information on any of our Gulf IRA's, call 864-2252 or 467-9296 or come by a Gulf National Bank location.

National president of VFW Auxiliary to pay official visit

MRS. LUCILE SUCHINA

Mrs. Lucile Suchina, Houston, Tex., National President of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will make her official visit to Mississippi in February.

Suchina was elected president of the Ladies Auxiliary to the V.F.W. at the 1985 national convention in Dallas, Tex. As a leader of the 720,591-member patriotic service organization, she will rally members behind her slogan, "America-Always Free," as she travels to all fifty-one departments and overseas.

A charter member and past president of Auxiliary No. 8010, Houston, Suchina is now a member of Auxiliary No. 8790, Houston. Her first major auxiliary project was raising funds for tape recorders for blind university students. She has been a leader of youth in her community and nation. For more than 30 years she has been an active volunteer leader in Girl Scouts.

Suchina retired in February, 1985, as secretary and senior staff assistant from Exxon Company, USA Headquarters. She attended the University of Houston, Southwestern University, and Humble/Exxon Schools. A past president, International Toastmistress Club at Exxon, Mrs. Suchina currently is a member of Professional Secretaries International, American Institute of Parliamentarians, American Management Association, American Society of Professional and Executive Women, and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church.

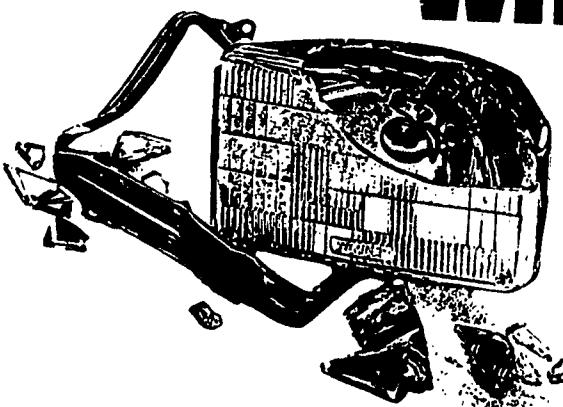

The National President will arrive at the Gulfport Regional Airport on February 17 at 1:15 p.m. where she will be greeted by Mrs. Norma Bonney, state president, of Pass Christian, Ms. State and local officers and members of the V.F.W. Auxiliaries will form an aisle of honor with members holding American flags. Official greetings will be presented from the cities of Gulfport and Biloxi. District No. 1 Auxiliaries will host a reception at the Diamondhead Townhouses, headquarters for the visit, following the airport arrival.

Mrs. Suchina will be guest speaker in Bay St. Louis that evening following dinner hosted by V.F.W. Post 3253 and Auxiliary for local and out-of-town members and guests.

Tuesday, Feb. 18, Pass Christian Auxiliary 5831 will entertain Mrs. Suchina with a luncheon and Mayor Jake Erwin will present official greetings from that city. A "walking tour" of historic Pass Christian will follow. Events are planned to give members of Mississippi's 82 auxiliary an opportunity to visit with the National President while she is on the Gulf Coast.

Mrs. Patricia Blakeney, Long Beach, is chairman for the visit. Jeanne Garcia, president of Theodore S. Price Ladies Auxiliary 3253, Charles Carver, Post Commander, and Lucille Boudaux, District 1 president, will greet her when she arrives at the post home. Inez Bouls is chairman from the auxiliary for the visit.

We fix what matters most.

24-HOUR EMERGENCY CARE

When accidents happen or illness strikes, the need for prompt, expert medical care can be critical.

Now you can have peace of mind, knowing that 24-hour emergency care is only minutes away.

NorthShore Regional Medical Center offers complete round-the-clock emergency medical services:

•The only ambulance service on the North Shore with 24-hour coverage by national registered paramedics, from the emergency site to the hospital. Registered paramedics are specialists in recognizing and responding to life-threatening crises.

•A highly skilled, caring emergency and trauma staff, backed by our medical staff of leading area physicians.

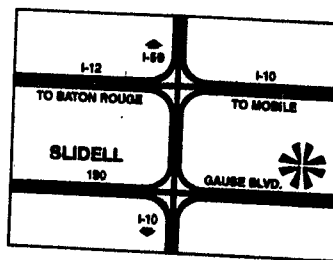

•State-of-the-art equipment in ambulances and the Emergency Room.

Another advantage: tiered-pricing

Tiered-pricing means that you pay only for the degree of care you require.

Unlike most hospitals, NorthShore does not charge a flat fee for Emergency Room admissions. In other words, a sore throat doesn't cost you as much as a serious fracture.

For yourself and your loved ones, remember NorthShore's 24-Hour Emergency Care Ambulance Service: 648-5050. Outside Louisiana, call toll-free: 1-800-344-6665.

1 mile south of the I-10, I-12 and I-59 intersection. Adjacent to the Cause Blvd. (100) exit, east of I-10.
